Lab Classes: If the semester has started, a student may add a class with a lab component if the first class has not been missed. Once the first class has been missed, the student may add the course with the permission of the instructor* (and advisor if matriculated). Examples of lab classes include lab sciences, computer technology, information systems technology, and drawing. Final decisions regarding what is considered a lab class rest with Academic Affairs.
The program chair or program coordinator may sign the add form if the instructor is unavailable.*

and political consequences. Discussion and research should give future sport managers a broader understanding of how sport impacts different groups of people in different ways throughout this country and beyond. Fall semester.

- SOCI136G Children and the Media: Diversity Issues 3-0-3 This course will explore the relationship of children to media in its social context. "Childhood" is a unique time where many images have a dramatic impact on the development of attitudes and perceptions about others. Impressions that may penetrate the subconscious are formed in children through media. This influence will be used to analyze diversity and the resulting stereotypes of religion, gender, age, race, ethnicity, disabilities, socio-economic status, and body image. Children have an innate capacity for abstraction. Techniques will include washes, color mixing, brush technique, masking, sponging, wet on wet and mixed media. Students will work from life when practical, learning composition, atmospheric perspective and color theory. Prerequisite: ARTS123G or ARTS124G or Permission of Instructor PERMXXX. Fall semester. {Change 3 lab hours to 2 lab hours, change 2-3-3 to 2-2-3.}

- ARTS230G Introduction to Printmaking 2-2-3 This course provides an introduction to a variety of printmaking techniques including monotype, relief and intaglio processes. Students will create one of a kind prints and projects through the exploration of printmaking strategies and sequences while creatively and objectively addressing the historical and contemporary issues of the art form. Students will gain skills necessary to produce and evaluate aesthetic solutions for a variety of printmaking methods. Prerequisite: ARTS123G or permission from the Program Coordinator. Fall semester. {Change 3 lab hours to 2 lab hours, change 2-3-3 to 2-2-3.}
- ARTS235G Sculpture and 3D Form 2-2-3 This course is an introduction to the theory and practice of creating three dimensional forms and sculptures. Through the manipulation of various materials, the student will investigate the composition and processes necessary to construct free-standing, suspended and relief sculpture. Students will employ modeling, carving, casting and construction methods to create original sculptural works. The three-dimensional elements of line, plane, surface, volume, mass and space will be utilized to create abstract and functional forms. Prerequisite: ARTS123G or ARTS124G. Spring semester. {Change 3 lab hours to 2 lab hours, change 2-3-3 to 2-2-3.}
